WRUW-FM 91.1
Summer 2007 Program Guide

Dear Cleveland,

It has been awhile since we last wrote to you. How are things with you? We hope it has been great. How are you doing? Good? How's Little John doing? How's Frank Jackson doing? Are they doing well? What have they been up to? Staying out of trouble we hope? Well, we're just doing dandy here.

Anyways, the transmitter got fed a little too much electrical power, and maybe that's why you didn't hear us for a few days during our Telethon in late April. Luckily, that got fixed, and our Telethon week got moved. In the end, we raised over $40,000 with your help. What kind people you are, Cleveland! Your money from last year's Telethon was put to good use. With your help we have a brand spanking new production studio. We can even broadcast out of it! Thank you to everyone who donated!

Also, thanks to everyone who came out to our 40th birthday bash at the Grog Shop on April 14. The bad weather might have deterred some people, but everyone who came still had a great time. Thanks to all the bands that played like The Wild Eye Boys, This is Exploding, Lick the Blade, and Tracy Marie. Now, remember: "We're 40, not top 40." Thanks for helping us age gracefully because, Cleveland, we'd like to grow old with you.

We'd also like to thank all the music venues that help us out with our ticket giveaways like the Grog Shop in Coventry, the Beachland out on Waterloo, the Agora at E.55th and Euclid, the Winchester on Madison, the House of Blues and Peabody's in downtown Cleveland.

I'm glad you're listening to us, and not that stuff towards the right of the dial. Who needs commercial radio when you have us? Seriously, we rock a lot of genres. David Caban's still cranking out showtunes, Cuzin' Dave's still cranking out old-time bluesy tex-mex, Jim Szabo is still cranking out jazz, Tran and Julia are still cranking out ska, and Rich Lowe is still cranking out reggae. We're cranking out so much stuff we might as well be bursting at the seams. We even crank out enough public affairs goodness that you just might not even need to read the newspaper anymore.

Sadly, not all that is gold glitters. After 25 years, Joe Riznar's show "Your Favorite Rebellion" has been retired. We'd like to thank him for a wonderful 25 years. Now maybe Joe will have time to go to shows on Friday nights. Maybe have a couple of drinks with friends. Heck, he can probably go to sleep at a decent hour. Have no fear, we have other great shows for you to listen to like Joe's Friday night replacement, John E. Midnight's "Dig, Baby, Dig!"

For a listing of every show, just check us out on the web at www.wruw.org or save this handy guide. On our website, you can contact WRUW people like our Underwriting Director if your business wants some airtime or our Promotions Director if your venue wants us to provide tickets for on-air giveaways.

Oh, and make sure you come to our Studio-A-Rama in early September. We'll pick out something real nice for you. Cleveland, stay awesome.

Love,
Tran Tran, General Manager
